MASPHATE® CD 100N

- ☑ Derived from 100% Coconut Oil.
- ☑ Reduced Carbon Footprint.
- ☑ All-natural.

MASPHATE® CD 100N needles by Musim Mas is an anionic surfactant, derived fully from natural coconut oil. It is a sodium coco-sulfate that readily disperses and flows freely in water. Heat is essential to fully dissolve the product. Benefits include cost savings, and excellent lather. It is also a viscosity-building agent that is biodegradable while maintaining product performance.

MASPHATE® CD 100N is also naturally free from 1,4-dioxane. This product meets the U.S. EPA Safer Choice and is listed on Cleangredients.org.
